

Laurel
1968

We have journeyed a year of midnights with coffee and cigarettes;
Scraping the plane of conversation
we have planted the rose.

Escaping through fields of straw
we have joined in the pursuit of butterflies;
Building castles in the sand
we have challenged the two-mile limit.

After chewing the cud of old books
we have set free the mind;
By sounding the depths, we know the way blindfolded.

Laurel

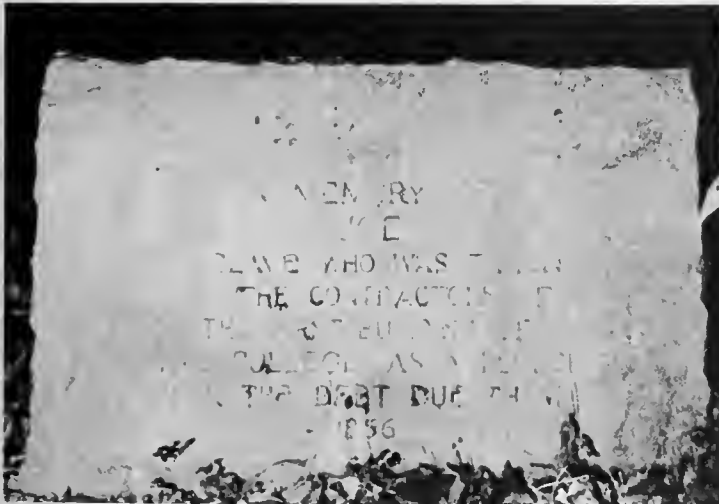

The year begins just like any other year — smoky smells, crunches under foot, and a chill, brisk air. Friends renew acquaintances, classes begin, new worries sprout. But here too, begin the challenges of the year, challenges both personal and universal, which the student must accept. Sometimes he fails. Sometimes he succeeds. Always he grows.

Upon entering college the student becomes aware that he must mold himself into an individual. A student may look like one hundred others, but his beliefs, ideas, goals, and ideals must be decidedly his own. The college student also learns that he must be much more than an individual — he must be an individual who can function successfully as a cog in his circle of friends, his society, and his world.

Dedication

Dean Ralph M. Lee
Academic Dean

The 1968 Laurel is dedicated to a man very familiar to all members of the Mars Hill campus and community.

Since joining the faculty in 1926, he has accepted many responsibilities and duties willingly and has seen them through to the end with a dedication that never stops. He joined the campus as a teacher of economics and government, but through his willingness to work for a college he loves, has achieved the role of academic dean. It has been a long road and not always an easy road, but his strong convictions and dedication to Mars Hill as an institution of education and a home for many individual students, have brought him to a position well deserving such a man.

Although he shall be leaving us soon, we will not soon forget him. In sincere appreciation for service well rendered, we, the students, gratefully dedicate the 1968 Laurel to Dean Ralph M. Lee.

Administration and Faculty

Administration

Dr. Fred B. Bentley
President

From the beginning Mars Hill College has striven to keep within the vanguard of educational progress in its area. It began as a junior college in 1921 and in 1962, after approval of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, became a senior college.

Following five years of dedicated work, Mars Hill received its senior college accreditation during the fall semester. Mars Hill will now be able to devote full time to its new program of expansion, instituted by President Bentley, "Emphasis on Excellence."

This year the faculty and administration adopted a revision of the core curriculum for next year. The system will group the freshmen and sophomores in the same fundamental courses while many repetitious courses will be cut. This will provide more emphasis on courses necessary for the foundation of more advanced study. Each academic department will set forth the requirements for a major in the department.

English, Speech, and Drama

The Department is vital in purpose for it helps alleviate one of the pressing needs of man, the need for communication. This year with the addition of two new professors, Mrs. Lucille S. Godwin and Joseph P. Shubert, this purpose is more nearly met.

Mathematics

The professors in Math and Physics teach for those students who plan to use their studies in science or industry or government, for those who plan to teach, and for those who do not plan to use them, but study them for their beauty and logical structure or because of their important part in today's world. Two new members were welcomed to the staff this year: Mrs. Bobby Jean Rice and Mr. George E. Britt.

Religion and Philosophy

Religion and philosophy, two of man's most ancient fields of study, enable the student to search for knowledge and truth. It is the purpose of the department to provide a point of reverence for the college where we may together seek to determine for education and for religion what Christian education might be, and some conception of meaning in the application of Christianity to the problems of the day.

Classical Languages

For each student in the area of classical languages, the program offered provides a choice from several meaningful combinations of courses. The student contemplating graduate study has been kept in mind also in the preparation of the offerings.

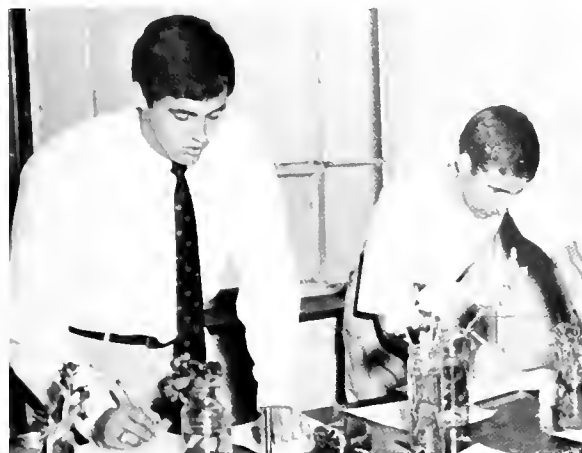

M. H. Kendall Th. M. J. Raymond Nelson Ph.D.

Biology

Courses in biology help to develop a better understanding of the world of living things and to provide a foundation for further study. Students majoring in biology may prepare for graduate study, for teaching, for professional study in medicine, dentistry, medical technology, nursing, physical therapy, forestry, and resource management. Dr. Fred H. Diercks and Mr. Norman E. Garrison are the new professors in the department.

Physical Education

The Department of Physical Education is continually striving to improve facilities and course offerings both for required courses and for majors and minors. This year with the aid of the new Chambers Gym and Harrell Pool the department has been able to offer a more varied program which will aid the student's physical development and will contribute to his total health and well-being as he makes preparation for the future.

Mars Hill's Department of Music, now joined by a new faculty member, Robert C. Schwuchow, continues to offer music students the best in training in the various music fields. The department owns a full complement of band and orchestra instruments, which are available to students for private study and for participation in the band and orchestra. The department was accredited during 1967-68 by the National Association of Schools of Music.

Art

J. C. Robertson M.F.A. R. K. Haycraft M.A. W. S. Wing M.A.

The Art Department seeks to stimulate natural talent and expose creativity in Mars Hill students. The department has brought varied displays to the campus and has displayed the work of many of our own students in the Fine Arts Gallery. The department's purpose is to offer opportunity for participation in creative studio work as well as studies directed to the rich, cultural patterns of art history.

Modern Languages

In many cases the knowledge of a foreign language is a pre-requisite to effective living in our times. The department instructs students in reading, speaking, and comprehending French, German, and Spanish.

Education

An important function of the college is the preparation of teachers for public school teaching. This department gives professional courses and provides an opportunity for students to practice modern teaching methods through student teaching. General Staff

Bryson H. Tilson
Director of Campus Planning

Without the help of the general staff the functions of the college would be carried out much less efficiently. With its aid, the offices, library, infirmary, cafeteria, and dorms are kept running for a smoother working of the college. The general staff may appear to be in the background, but it plays the part of backbone for Mars Hill College.

Organizations

Honor Clubs

The Honor Clubs of Mars Hill are one of the most vital extracurricular activities on campus. Membership is by invitation only after a student has acquired at least a B average in the subject the club represents. Another qualification is a grade of no lower than a C in any other course. The aim of these clubs is to encourage a deeper understanding in the special interest field of the student. This insight is induced by off-campus field trips and the lectures of outstanding speakers.

Science Club

SEATED: Ruff Wheliss, Jack Gaines, June Bullard, Fran Austin, Tommy Methias, Earlene Radford, Cindy Miller, Susan Barnette, STANDING: Lynn Magann, Sarah Lunsford, Norman Garrison, Dr. Joe Taylor, L. M. Outten, Mickey Waters, Lee Forrest, Mickey Jenkins, Steve Taylor, Wilson Laney, Howard Lane, Gordon Plum-blee, Diane Cowan, Mavis Dowdle, Linda Alt.

The Science Club has been organized to help promote a wider student interest in new areas of scientific research and development. The monthly meetings consist of programs presented by guest speakers or students. Under the direction of Dr. Outten a few of the club's activities have been to provide chapel speakers and visitors in the field of science.

International Relations Club

"Understanding Through Participation" — This has been the goal of I.R.C. this year. It has sought to acquaint its members with the complexities found in the world community of nations.

Although designed as an honor club for those with a major in history, I.R.C. welcomes any student having achieved a "B" in some history course given at Mars Hill. Each member gains a deeper understanding of international relations through participation in the club's seminars and semester projects.

Business Club

The Business Honor Club is composed of students in the Business Department who have shown superior scholarship. In addition, club members are to show Christian character, promise of future attainment, pleasing personality, and integrity.

One activity of this club is the preparation of a Christmas mailing list of students and faculty for sale to the student body. During the spring semester a field trip to a leading industrial plant is taken. The most important activity is the annual Business Club Alumni Association banquet which former club members attend. At this banquet the Mildred Bingham Scholarship and the BCAA medal are presented to deserving students.

FIRST ROW: Judy Whitlow, Maxie Rayford, John Stancil, David Bunn, Kathy Spells, Sandra Coston, Bill Thompson. SECOND

Scriblerus Club

The Scriblerus Club, the oldest honor organization at Mars Hill College, was established by members of the English Department in the early 1920's. The purpose of Scriblerus is to stimulate interest in literature, recognize outstanding achievements in English, and encourage creative expression. Club activities include creative writing sessions, guest lecturers, and occasional trips to Asheville. Members are also encouraged to contribute to Cadenza, student literary magazine.

Orpheon Club

The Orpheon Honor Club is to promote an active interest in music by the demonstration of various instruments, with voices, and with band and choral material. A member must have a B average in all music courses and a C average in all other courses.

Logothia Club

Wilbur Parrott, Glenn Graves, Terry Kenny, Pam Culler, Nancy Phillips, Sybil Fain.

Logothia is the religion honor club. The club's meetings consist of programs either by the members or by guest speakers. Page Lee and Dr. Nelson are the advisors of Logothia.

This year Logothia enjoyed various activities, one of which was helping a needy family during the Christmas season.

Spanish Club

The Name of the Spanish Club is La Tertulia. The purpose of the club is to promote the practice of Spanish and the familiarization of the members with the customs, the literature, and the Spanish and Latin American arts in order to increase the friendship between those countries and our own.

An important objective for this year has been to have a number of the meetings open to interested students other than just the members.

College Marshals

The college marshal holds perhaps the most distinguished honor a student can receive at Mars Hill. The honor is awarded to sixteen students, eight men and eight women, selected each year by the Academic Standards Committee of the faculty. Selections are carefully checked and approved by the full faculty. One-year terms are fulfilled in ushering at graduation, recitals, seminars, movies and other activities on campus.

History Club

The History Club has used its programs this year to stress the current historical events and the importance that they have on each of us. These have been slides on Expo '67, their celebration of the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 and panels on the current trends in American presidential campaigns. These programs are designed to include all areas of history as it is made and to encourage all students to take a closer look at the world in which they live and the history that is being made.

Math Club

The Math Club is an organization for those who are especially interested in mathematics. The membership is open and no qualifications are necessary. This club sponsors speakers who lecture on various aspects of math as used in the professional world. Filmstrips are also shown as another means of information.

Cneryl Pendry, Jeanne Dunn, Earlene Radford, Margaret Hardin, Ellen Horton, Cathy Martin. STANDING: Jim Bell, Bill Bruce, Marie Fortenberry, Nancy Sasser, Joyce Snipes, Fred Day, Steve Sellstrom, James Carroll, John Scott, Leland Oxendine.

Alpha Psi Omega

Eta Delta, campus chapter of the national drama fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, was organized in the spring of 1966. This organization recognizes the ability of an individual in acting, directing, and staging productions which the drama department sponsors.

Members this year have participated in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "The Subject Was Roses," "Macbird," and "The Odd Couple." They also were active in the summer theatre workshop.

SNEA Officers

Aldridge, second vice president; Betty Wise, social chairman; Madeline Davis, co-publicity chairman.

The Student National Education Association consists of the college's education majors. This organization attempts to reveal to its members the importance of the teaching profession through its programs of guest speakers and discussions. A member of SNEA realizes the consequences of his future profession through the experiences of his membership.

SAM

The Society for Advancement of Management unites business executives and students, who are preparing to go into business. This organization also serves as an effective medium for the exchange and distribution of information on problems and techniques of industry and management through guest speakers and field trips. SAM provides students with the opportunity to participate in the advancement of the art and science of management.

Art Club

To instill a deeper appreciation of beauty on the Mars Hill campus, to encourage student participation in fields of art, to give art students a chance to display their productions—these are the goals of the newly-found art club. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Haycraft, the club has already made efforts to attain these goals.

Home Economics Club

The Mars Hill Home Economics Chapter, an integral part of the North Carolina Home Economics Association, is the organization to which all majors in this field are welcome. The chapter programs are oriented toward exposure to the many careers available in this area of study. In addition the members learn by working together on projects which implement the total college home economics curriculum. It is anticipated that the college chapter will help prepare its members for membership in professional organizations.

tragoon, Miss Frances Snelson, Pramot Juthapan, Dr. Roman Gorski, Harvey Martin, Prida Chaisiri, Charles Chang.

Pi Sigma Phi Officers

SEATED: Beverly Keller. STANDING: Jerry Blevins, Bill Dyar, Larry Clark.

Religious Organizations

Religious organizations are another important aspect in the student life of Mars Hill. They enable the students to create a close fellowship in Christian service. Most are Baptist, but other denominations have formed active groups on campus. These organizations include Baptist Student Union, Ministerial Conference, Young Women's Auxiliary, Volunteers for Christ, Mission Council, and the Methodist Student Movement.

FIRST ROW: Diane Costner, Lynette Vaughan, Sally Spaulding, Bobbie Miller. SECOND ROW: Allen Lane, Rick Gas-kin, Jim Richardson, Jim Smith.

B S U Council

The Baptist Student Union serves as the co-ordinating body for all campus religious activities. Through the work of its Executive and Greater Councils, it provides opportunities for student involvement in missions, worship services, social action, forums, and monthly supper meetings. With these activities it seeks to encourage students in responsible relationships, to stimulate personal growth, to train for Christian leadership, and with the life of Christ as a guide, to aid students in developing love for their fellowman.

Young Woman's Auxiliary

The Mars Hill College Y.W.A. is an organization for young women through which they may participate in mission activities. The programs deal with topics of foreign and home mission work, summer mission work, and local or area mission work. Programs are monthly and all women are invited.

Special activities during the year include choosing a family at Thanksgiving and Christmas and giving them a "helping hand" during the holidays; going Christmas caroling; presenting gift Bibles to girls who are engaged to be married; and attending conferences and conventions in the state.

Ministerial Conference

The Oscar E. Sams Ministerial Conference is composed of any male student of Mars Hill College who is recognized as a ministerial candidate. This organization strives to prepare its members for the ministry of the Gospel by working in harmony with the Christian students of the College and the people of the surrounding area.

Volunteers

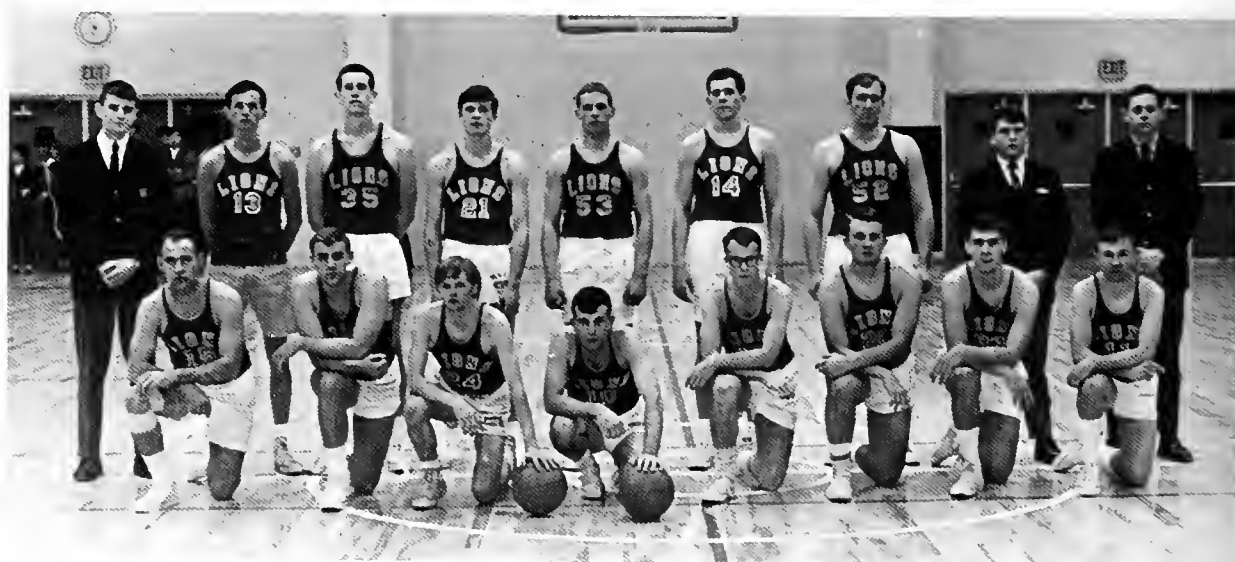

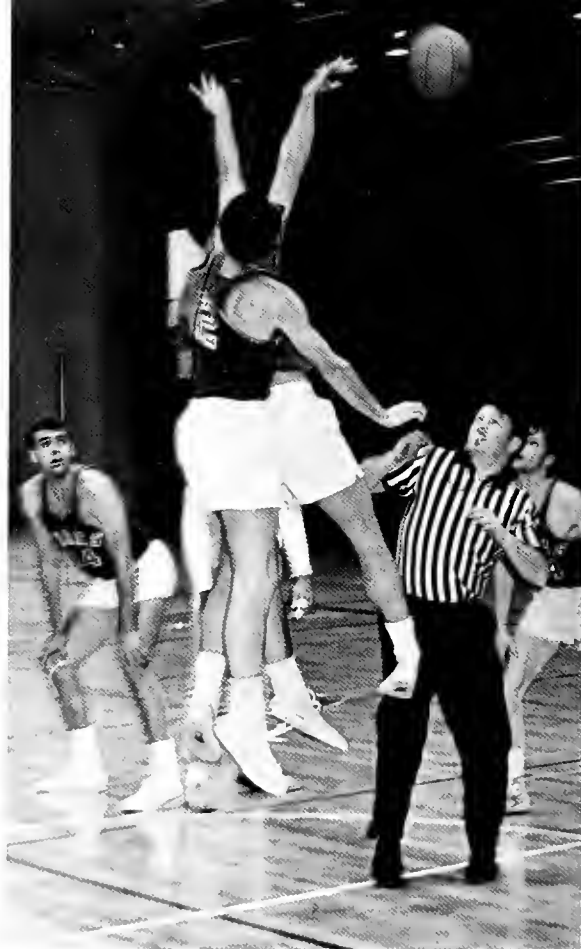

Among the many members of the college family are those who participate in Volunteers for Christ, an organization composed of men and women who seek to do God's will in their respective vocations. Meeting once a month, Volunteers present through their programs various ways in which the college student may serve God and His people in an ever-changing world. Volunteers feel that any vocation can be a Christ-centered calling for service. Volunteers for Christ is part of the Mars Hill College Baptist Student Union.

FIRST ROW: J. Arrowood, S. Gwaltney, J. Justice, J. Lowe, J. Greene, M. Kirk, M. Williams, K. Green, N. Mayo, C. Henderson, L. F. Turner, A. Baker, L. Farrow, M. Fountain, D. Swisher. SECOND ROW: P. BSU Basketball

This year's BSU Basketball team, under the direction of coach David Costner of Raleigh, was very successful in the state BSU roundball conference. Playing such teams as Appalachian, Western Carolina, Duke, East Carolina, Wake Forest and North Carolina State, the team did exceptionally well in the state tournament in Greensboro.

Methodist Student Movement stimulates its members to realize their relationships to themselves and their world. The organization meets every Sunday evening at Mars Hill Methodist Church, where fellowship is created through an informal meal before each business and program session. Films and discussions are central to their program.

Student Organizations

The Student Organizations include all social-service clubs, and all governing bodies of the SGA. They regulate the activities and main projects undertaken on campus and give everyone an opportunity to participate. Also, the SGA has given the students a definite interest in themselves and the general welfare of the school. These organizations provide a special spirit of competition and cause the students to realize they can be responsible workers. Activities such as Rush Week and elections supply memorable experiences. These groups promote a more united and organized campus.

Treasurer: Robert Stanley Davis

Secretary: Diane Elizabeth Eubanks

President: Carroll Anderson Reed

Vice President: Russell Jay Flippin Jr.

Student Government

The student government works to promote the emphasis on each student by allowing him to govern himself. Through co-operation with the faculty and administration, the student government attempts to handle student affairs effectively. The success of the SGA is determined by the amount of responsibility that each student places on himself.

This year the student government published a very muchly needed Freshmen Directory. The organization also sponsored a dance to highlight the first week of school. Other activities of the SGA include Rat Week, the Maryville train trip, the Furman bus trip and a proud welcoming committee to greet Dean Lee on his return trip from the accreditation committee at the convention in Dallas.

Attorney General: Perry White. Assistants to the Attorney General: Martha Morris, Ed Griffin, John Foster, David Smith. Defense Attorney: Paul Early. Assistants to the Defense Attorney: David Brookshire.

Court and Senate

The court tries all infractions of rules and regulations at Mars Hill College. Thefts, breach of moral conduct, and cheating are among the cases taken into this court. It is composed of members of the Senate and representatives chosen by the Senate.

The Student Senate attempts to serve all students by discussions and passing of bills and resolutions. The Senate serves as a sounding board for the student body by listening to complaints and suggestions. Projects are undertaken that may benefit both college and community. Committees are vital part of the Senate since they look into various phases of student life to find flaws, and hopefully, to improve the communications between faculty and students.

The Commission is responsible for relating to the Senate any policy dealing with the citizenship and general welfare of the students. The Commission can serve as an appellate court for any lower judicial body; also, the Commission can be a court for minor actions against campus regulations. Representatives from the house councils and commuting students compose the Commission.

Sigma Alpha Chi

Among the various activities that Sigma Alpha Chi participated in this past year was the annual Miss America Pageant, the selling of corsages for homecoming, preparing various items for needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and keeping Mars Hill Public Library in order.

The members strive for a closer relationship among themselves and participate actively in the Inter-Club Council. By selecting fifteen new members this past semester the goals of service, achievement and charity are more nearly met.

Music

Touring Choir

The Touring Choir completed one of their most successful, and one of the longest tour seasons this year. A "mini-tour" in the fall carried them to Virginia and to Greensboro, where they were enthusiastically acclaimed as one of the best acapella choirs in the state by the Music Educators National Conference convention. They were equally well accepted by the State Baptist Convention in Asheville. The Spring Tour carried them to Atlanta, Georgia, Orlando, Fort Lauderdale, and other parts in North Florida, to Columbia, South Carolina, and back to Asheville.

Mr. Robert Rich, the director, made several changes in the choir. The size of the choir was increased to fifty-one, a tour record was cut, and blazers were added to the wardrobe.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Schwuchow, the marching band became, for the first time, a pageant band. Many hours were spent on the practice field to perfect routines that were presented at halftime during football season.

The band also performed several other distinctive functions. They marched in the Asheville Christmas Parade, gave chapel performances, and were at the Asheville airport to help greet Dean Lee as he returned to Mars Hill with accreditation from the Southern Association.

Mr. Robert Shwuchow, director of the Marching Band.

Stage Band

Mr. Wayne Pressley, director of the Stage Band, talks with one of his trumpet students.

The Stage Band is a new music organization on campus this year. It consists of musicians who are interested in making the "Big Band" sound.

Under the direction of Mr. E. W. Pressley, it filled the need of a mood band by playing the Miss Laurel pageant, and presenting several concerts. Many times they were invited to perform off campus. In the spring the group attended a clinic for stage bands at the University of Tennessee.

Features

Miss Laurel

Miss Cornelia Brooks Akers from Stuart, Virginia, was chosen Miss Laurel, 1968 in the annual campus beauty pageant. The poise and talent of the new queen captivated the audience and judges as she sang "With a Song in My Heart" and "It's a Grand Night for Singing." The dark-haired sophomore was crowned by her immediate predecessor, Beverly Canseler.

Miss Laurel Pageant

"The Impossible Dream" began. Fifteen talented and attractive contestants were selected to represent the various classes and dormitories. Three judges were chosen to combine their judgments in selecting MISS LAUREL OF 1968. The judges were Mrs. Wallace Hyde, Mr. Bill Christopher, and Mrs. Tuck Gudger, all of Asheville.

Finally the night arrived and the stage was set with an exquisite chandelier and special runway into the audience. Following the splendid array of talent the judges chose five finalists: Janis Elam, Martha Morris, Maria Hunt, Cornelia Akers, and Ginger Eddleman.

As tension mounted each of the finalists was asked two questions, one serious and the other humorous. All answered their questions with a sense of individuality. Then the decision of the judges was announced. Ginger was named Miss Congeniality, and Maria was identified as first runner-up. Then, while everyone held his breath, Master of Ceremonies Bill Gardner announced the name of the new Miss Laurel, Corney Akers.

Much of the success of the pageant can be attributed to the efforts of Mike Swaim. His hard work of planning and preparing was climaxed in a beautiful and exciting evening.

Special Events

A collage of 14 black and white photographs depicting various school events. The photos show students in athletic activities, social gatherings, and performances. One photo features a banner that reads "NO MATTER WHERE YOU FROM NOR HOW YOU CAME CLAD YOU'RE HERE".

Lyceum

The Lyceum Series gained popularity by including the terrific sound of the famous Platters during the Homecoming celebration.

For the culturally refined, however, there were a variety of events to attend. Benjamin Butler's "Curlew River" aroused an interest in an exciting and different contribution to the world of music. Styled after an English medieval religious drama and based on an ancient Japanese play, the story itself was a moving tab about a distraught mother in search of her lost child.

For the lover of dance, there was the American Choreographic Company, one of the first companies to combine both classical and modern dance technique.

Marilyn Burris, "Singer of the Year" for 1967, demonstrated a rare combination of acting competence and world power in a repertoire of songs including those in Spanish, Latin, and Italian.

And last, the famous Norman Lubolf Choir offered a variety of excellently performed sectarian and religious music.

Symposium

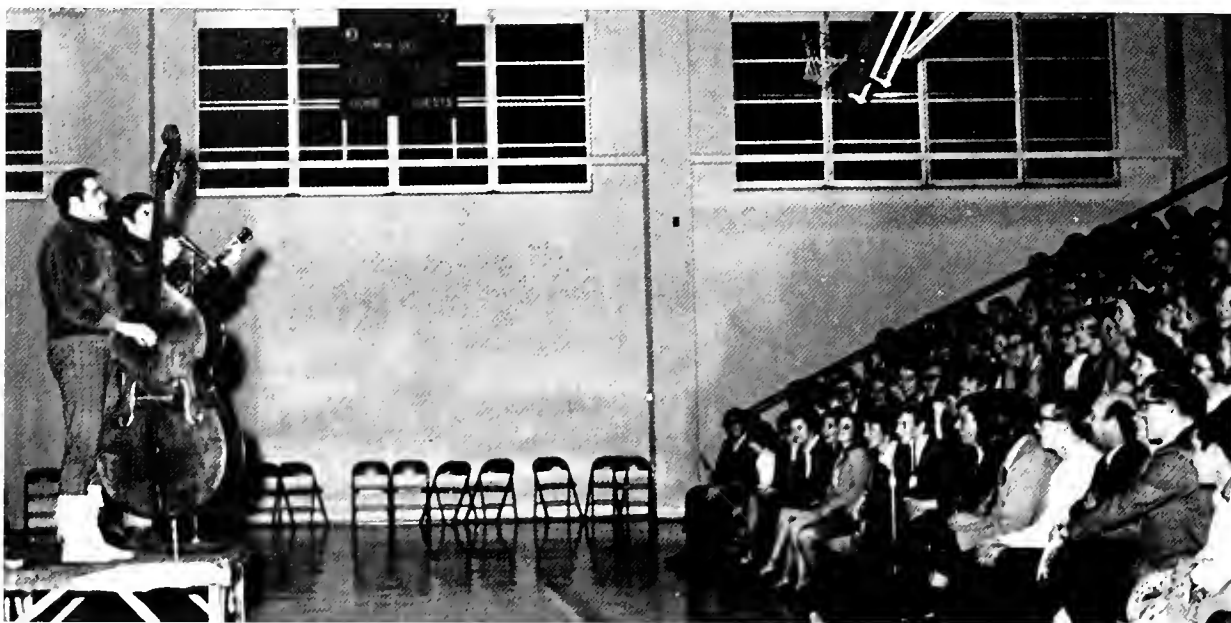

"The United States in 1968" was the theme for this year's spring symposium. Headed by the noted ABC commentator Edward P. Morgan, the panel of speakers included Kenneth Crawford, Washington columnist for Newsweek; Michael Katz, assistant professor of law at UNC at Chapel Hill; Dr. John Strange of the North Carolina Fund; Dr. Emanuel Carlson, executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs; Dr. Nevitt Sanford, director of the Institute for the study of human problems; and Dr. G. M. Gilbert, internationally known psychologist from Long Island University.

These men shared their insight and knowledge on such timely topics as the American crisis as a result of the war in Viet Nam, church-state relations, political issues of the coming election, education during the sixties, cities and their problems, and the youth of America.

Focus Week

Christian Focus Week aroused a spirit rarely seen on the Mars Hill campus. Under the direction of Bill Dyar and Martha Morris, the spirit began with two unusual and stimulating chapel programs centered around the theme "What's it all about?" These were followed by a night of raising music by the Avante-Garde and a week of heated seminars and meaningful services led by Dr. Sherrill, Mrs. Owen Herring, Mr. Charles Allen, Mr. Allan Buzbee, Rev. Martin England, Dr. Claude Broach, Mr. Bill Stanley, and Father Tom O'Donnell. All the speakers had their own particular view of what it's all about and were able to give the students insight concerning themselves and the world in which they live. The week was one of the most successful of the Christian Focus Weeks in Mars Hill's history.

Lamar Stringfield Day

A day of tribute to the memory of a gifted North Carolinian, composer-flutist Lamar Stringfield, was celebrated November 4, among the Blue Ridge Peaks where Stringfield spent his boyhood. Among Stringfield's many achievements were his receiving a Pulitzer Prize for his orchestral suite, "From the Southern Mountains," his direction of the Charlotte Symphony from 1948-1949, and the composition of the musical score for Le Gette Blythe's musical drama "Short Freedom."

In memory of such a successful Mars Hill Alumnus a dinner was held on the campus followed by a mixed chorus of MHC students performing Stringfield's cantata "Peace." Other ceremonies included a mid-afternoon program featuring the N. C. String Quartet.

Rat Queen: Donna Long

Rat Week

Rat Week, known this year as Freshman Appreciation Week, was anything but that. Freshmen were required to wear gold and blue beanies, perform in the cafeteria, carry books, in short to follow the orders of the upperclassmen. Sloppy Day was followed by Dress Up Day, and Dress Up Day by days of good-natured fun to encourage upperclassmen to meet and appreciate the future leaders of the campus.

Harrell Pool, and Chambers Gym Dedications

A highlight of the Homecoming-Founders Day Celebration on October 7 was the formal opening of a complex of new facilities for physical education, athletics and recreation. Several hundred persons gathered in the stadium for the ceremonies. Large gold ribbons connected the speaker's stand with the two new buildings and with a handsome marker designating the outdoor facilities as "Meare's Athletic Field." Although the wind played havoc with the ribbon, the men for whom the facilities are named symbolically clipped them and Dr. Elmer West offered an appropriate prayer. The grandchildren of Mr. Harrell initiated the pool afterward.

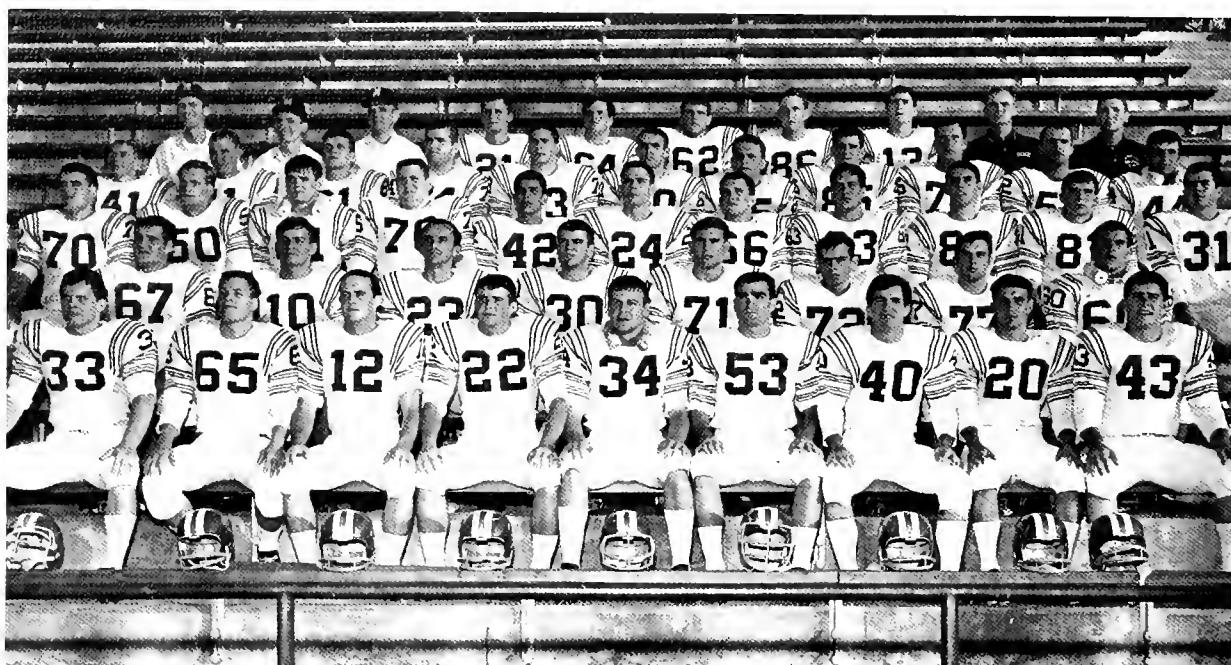

Sports

With the knowledge that the school planned to drop football from its intercollegiate athletic program at the end of the season, the 1967 gridders took the field for their opening game against a powerful Furman University eleven. The Lions were outclassed, however, and Furman walked away with a 42-0 victory.

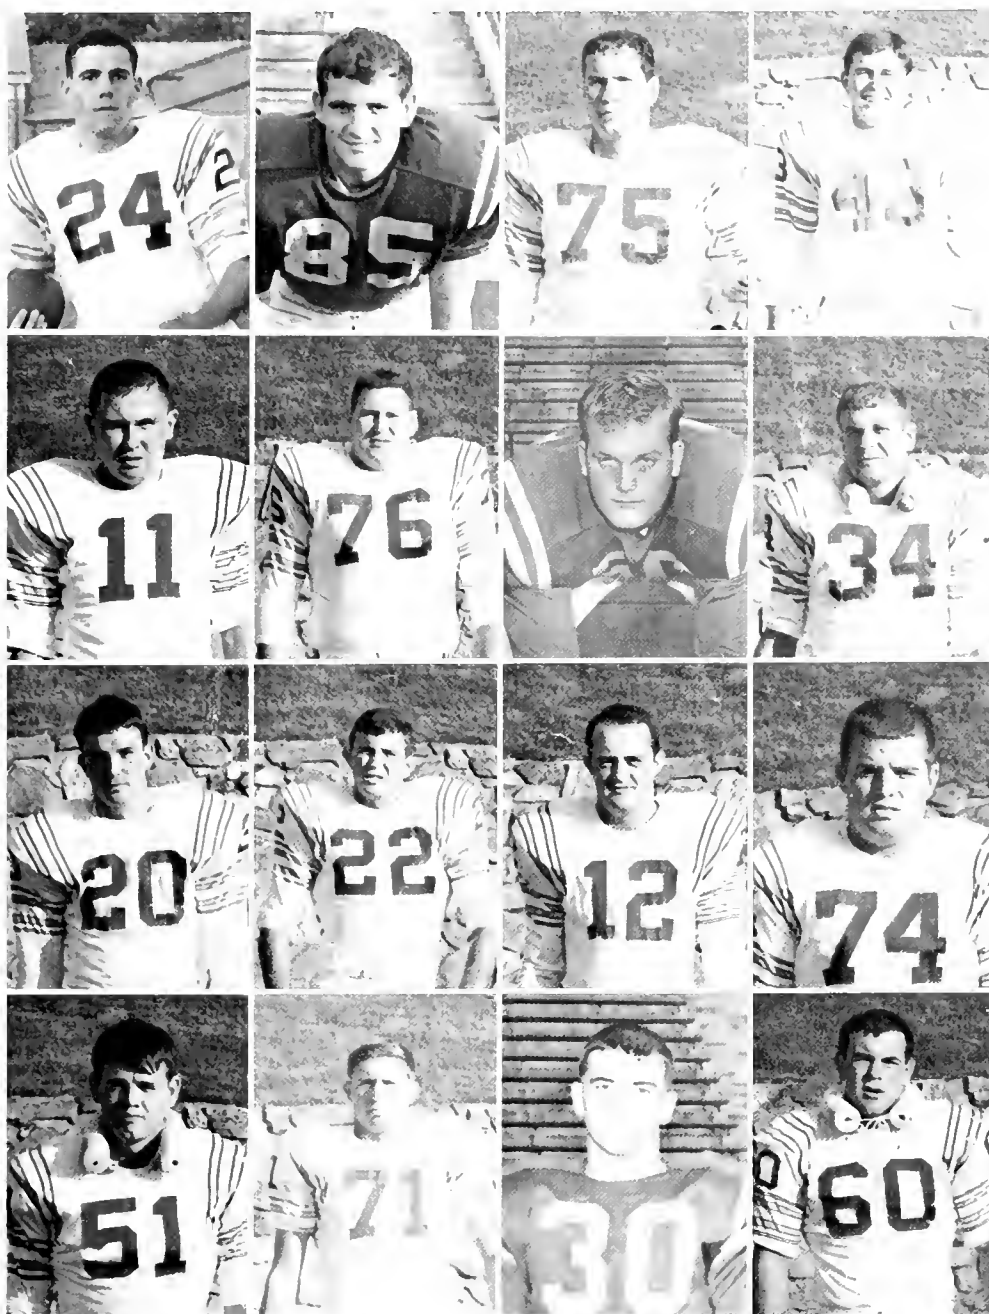

The following week the Lions, coached by Don Henderson and Ron Bromley, faced another stern road game. Although every man on the squad fought his hardest the Catawba Indians pulled out a 28-0 win.

After a week layoff the gridders traveled to Maryville to do battle with the Scotties. In the first quarter the Scots pushed across a score and held on for the rest of the game to sneak a 7-0 victory.

The next game was homecoming for the Lions. It was a charged-up team that took the field to battle with the Eagles of Carson-Newman. C-N took a 14-0 lead before Felton Stephens put the Lions back in the ball game with two field goals. Dan Balcome later scampered seven yards for a TD, but the try for the two-point conversion failed, and the Lions took their fourth loss, 14-12.

The following week nationally-ranked Concord came to town. Once again the Lions fought hard, but simply did not have enough as the West Virginia team earned a 30-7 victory.

The Emory and Henry Wasps were Mars Hill's opponents in our last home football game. The Lions jumped into a quick 14-8 lead in the first quarter but the Wasp passing game proved to be too much for the Lions as E&H won 37-21. In this game end Felton Stephens caught 6 passes for 105 yards, a school record.

The next game found the Lions at Cullowhee for a scrap with the Western Carolina Catamounts. On the first play from scrimmage Dan Balcome ran 76 yards to put Mars Hill ahead 6-0. The lead was short lived, however, as the Cats poured it on relentlessly and emerged with a 56-12 win. Balcome set a school record for rushing yardage in a single game, breaking his own record set against Carson-Newman.

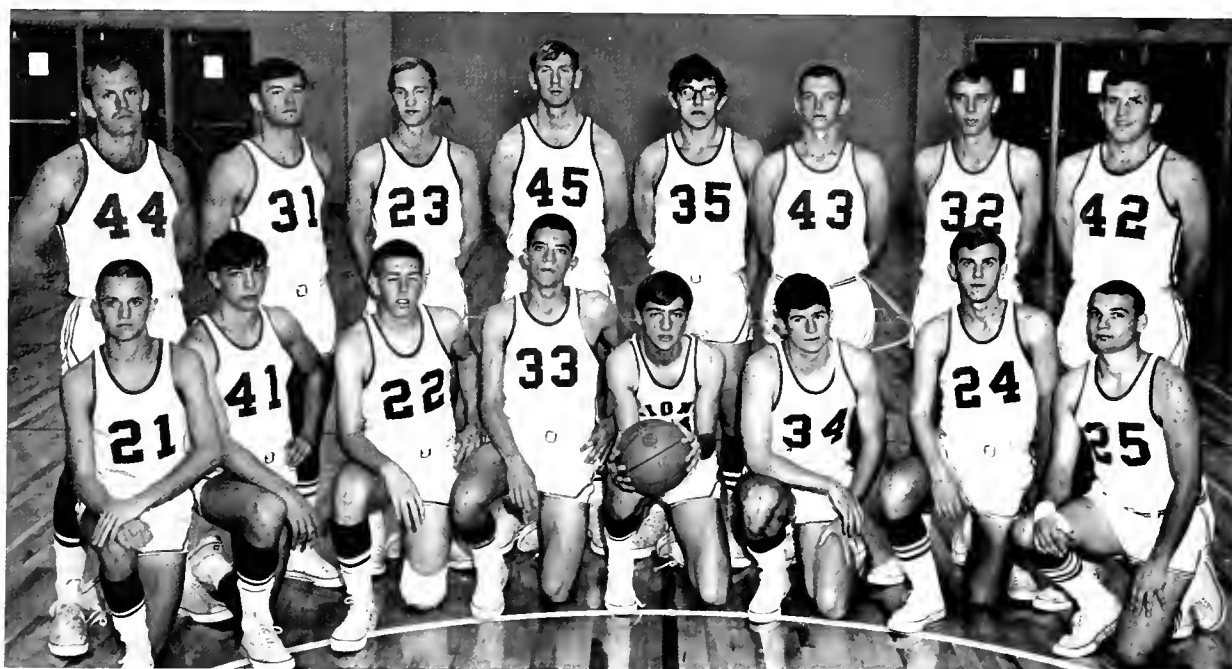

In the final game of the season Mars Hill topped Frederick College everywhere except on the scoreboard, and the Lions took their eighth loss of the season 7-6.

Despite the dismal 0-8 season, several school records were set. Dan Shook ran up a total offense of 611 yards to top his old mark of 410. Shook also broke his own mark for passing yardage in a season. Bill Dyar, in a close battle with Balcome, took the rushing record with 324 yards. In the pass-receiving department two records were set. Stephens and Balcome tied for yards gained passing with 184 each. Jerry Blevins caught a record 18 passes.

Statistically the 1967 Lions were an improvement over the team of the previous season. This time, however, there is no "wait'll next year." Football has left Mars Hill College. Will it ever return?

Basketball

The 1967-68 basketball season was one of the rebuilding for the Lions under the direction of Harrell Wood. The season marked the beginning of a new era in Mars Hill College Basketball.

Chambers Gymnasium was used for the first time, ridding us of the cramped, crowded "Crackerbox." The schedule, especially at the beginning of the season, was tough for any team.

The slow start could be partially attributed to the fact that four freshmen were filling starting roles: Eddie Miller, Larry Goodwin, Bob Peterson, and Mike Hoover. The big problem for the team, however, was lack of height. The tallest man on the squad was only 6-3, much too short for consistent rebounding advantages.

The Lions opened the season with their first game in Chambers gym, facing powerful Augusta College. Augusta proved to be much superior to the Lions and took an 84-61 win.

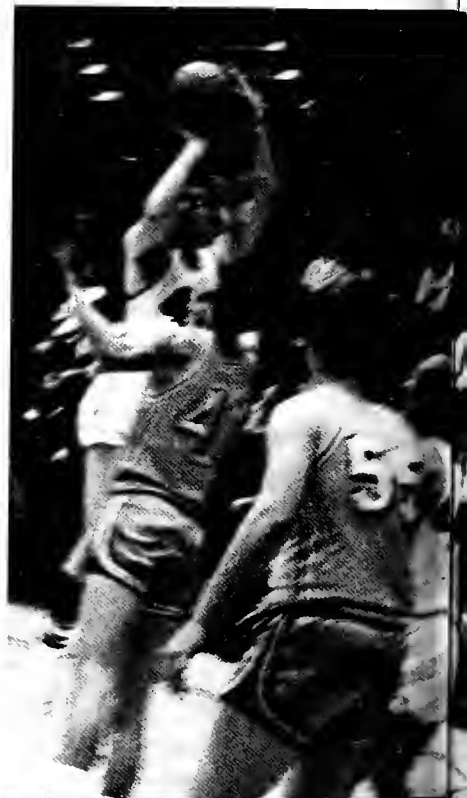

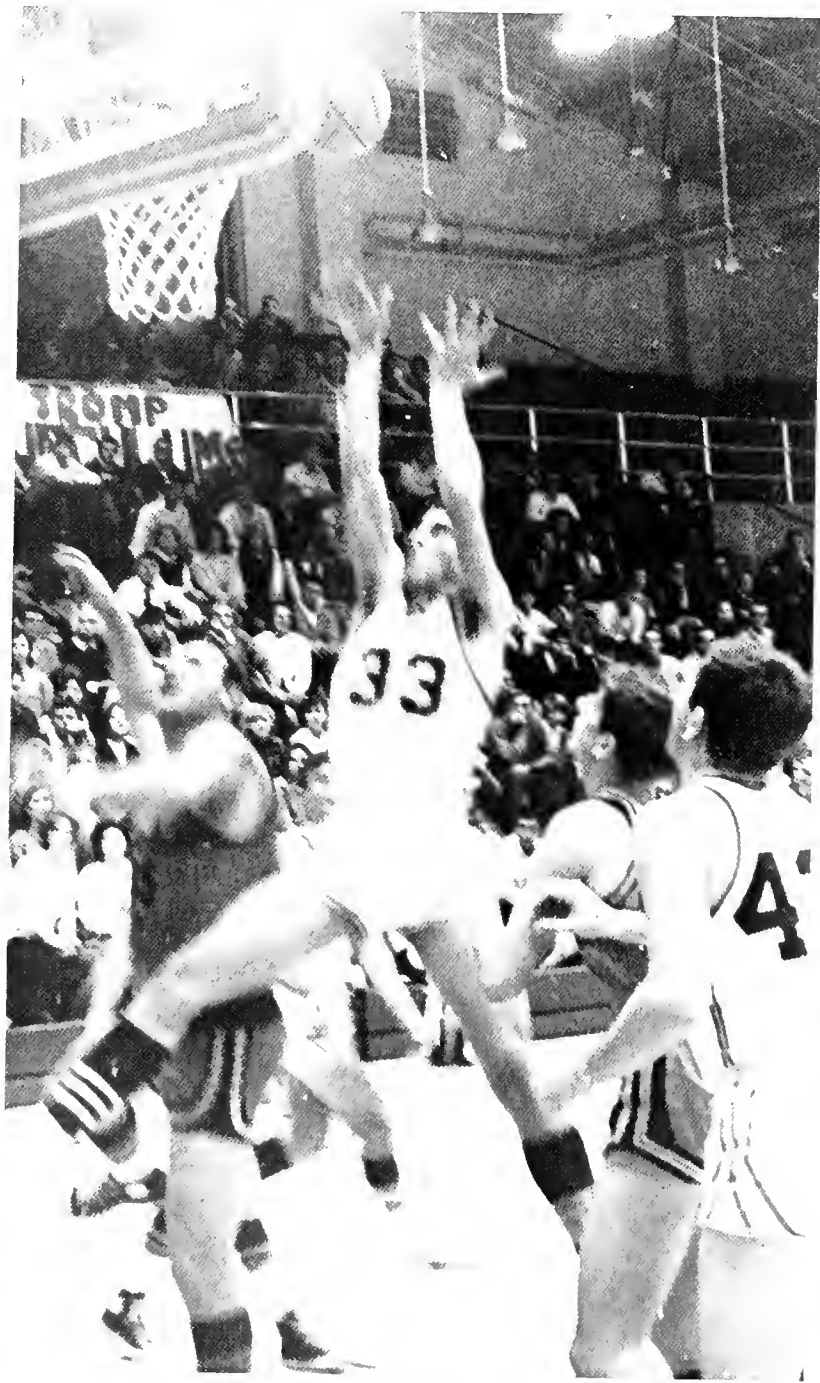

The following two days saw the Lions at Asheville-Biltmore for the A-B Tournament. In the tournament Mars Hill gained a split losing 86-72 and defeating Milligan 80-65. Larry Goodwin received the sportsmanship award for the tournament.

Following the tournament the roundballers returned home for a weekend against Campbell and Pembroke Colleges. Twice more the Lions were denied victory in Chambers, as the visitors topped us, 107-96 and 94-69.

The cagers then took to the road for a nine-game road stand. In the first of these games a charged up Wofford College topped the Lions 105-84. In the next game, the Lions faced Asheville-Biltmore again and lost 103-73. After that followed losses to Erskine (68-50) and Tusculum (88-82), then the Woodmen took a much needed break for exams.

The Lions resumed action in the Newberry Tournament, January 1-2. In the opening round a red-hot Newberry five overwhelmed the Lionmen 115-86. On the next night Erskine was forced to fight all the way for a 73-66 win.

Basketball

In the next game, the Lions pulled the "upset of the year" for Mars Hillians. They invaded the friendly confines of Pembroke College and snapped a 30-game home win streak for the superior Braves. The score was 71-70. Two nights later the Lions faced Campbell College once more, and forced the Campbell crew to hustle to pull out a 85-78 victory.

For the final road game of the present stand, the Woodmen traveled to Washington & Lee University where they met defeat 79-55.

Returning home after nearly two months, the Lions hungered for a win and were not to be denied. The Lions completely dominated the game as Tusculum was soundly defeated 94-74 for our first win in the spacious new gym.

The Lions played two more home games, but were unable to come up with another victory. They were defeated 90-72 by Wofford, and 89-81 by Newberry.

The cagers took to the road for two more and were still unable to come up with a win. King College dominated the entire second half after a close first half, and toppled the Lions, 104-80. In a trip to Maryville the Lions came out cold and had to play catch-up ball but were unable to do it successfully and Maryville & Co. had a 78-76 triumph.

Returning home, the Lions were angry and ready for a win. Once again Milligan fell victim to the Lions by the same 15 point margin. The score was 90-75. For their next game the Lions traveled to Milligan and were defeated 94-85.

Baseball

The Lion baseballers began the 1968 season without a home field, and as a result, were forced to play "home" games on the North Buncombe High School field. For this reason the schedule was not as strong as Coach Don Henderson had hoped for.

Coach Henderson hoped to improve on last year's fine 10-5 record with several players back. Expected to lead the team were .400 hitter Jerry Gault and pitchers Tommy Chapman and Jim Warford. Several new prospects were on hand to fill holes vacated by graduates such as Jim Jackson, Ken Maynor, David Webster, and Bobby Franklin.

In four years of senior college play, the lion baseballers have compiled a 37-15 record.

Cross Country

The 1967 cross country team finished with a 4-6 record, an improvement over the 5-8 record of the previous year. The harriers took victories over Wofford twice, Montreat-Anderson, and Western Carolina.

The team was aided considerably by new legs. Leading runner for Coach Phillips' crew was Russell Barrett, a transfer from North Greenville Junior College.

Despite the fact that his record was below the .500 mark, Phillips was optimistic about the future. He will have several men returning next year, and hopes to get some more talent for the 1968 team.

KNEELING: Russell Barrett, Johnny Draughan, David Douglass. STANDING: Mike Daniels, David Costner, Bob Wall.

John Sweatlock, Bob Wood, Danny Shook, Mike Wood.

Jim Hooker, Stan Mock, Eddie Castelloe, George Brown, Marty Phillips, Russell Barrett.

Allen Watson, Rick Garrison, Morris White, Johnny Draughon, Gary Lawing.

Prospects for the 1968 track squad looked the best they had in several seasons with new faces and much experience back from the last year's team.

Coach Charles Phillips was optimistic about the season and fully expected to improve on the 1-7-1 record compiled in 1967. He expected to be strongest in the field events, such as javelin, shot put, broad jump, triple jump, and discus. The weak points were expected to be the track events. A big boost to the track team was junior Russell Barrett, a distance man capable of setting school records in the two-mile, mile, and half-mile.

Tennis

The tennis team began its 1968 schedule under a new coach, William Deans. With five men returning from last year's squad, which compiled a record of 5-5, optimism was high. The schedule was moderately rough, including teams such as Western Carolina, Milligan, Tusculum, Montreat-Anderson, and Emory and Henry.

Extramurals

Extramurals was a new dimension added to the Physical Education Department this year. This group of girls participated both on and off campus in volleyball and basketball with other colleges. The new program, under the direction of Miss Hart, has greatly improved the girls' ability and understanding of these competitive sports. It is hoped that many more will become aware of this program and will participate in it.

The 1968 season could be termed as a rebuilding year for the Mars Hill golfers. Number one man Marshall Fall needed to be replaced before another strong team could be fielded. The '68 schedule was not as strong as the one of the previous year, but had its share of strong competitors.

Golf Coach: Ron Bromley.

Intramurals

KNEELING: Carroll Reed, Dave Edwards, Earl Eller, Tommy Smith, Steve Sellstrom. STANDING: Johnny MacIntosh, Bruce Robinson, Joel Reed, Wayne Staples, Ruff Wheliss, Lionel Caldwell, Mickey Waters.

Intramurals were expanded this year and under the direction of Dennis Adams, student director, and Mr. Charles Phillips, faculty advisor, many more men participated than in any other previous period. Competition was in football, basketball, ping-pong, horse-shoes, tennis, badminton, and softball.

In early November, Myers II football team won the football championship in a thrilling game over the commuters. The team was led by Bruce Robinson, Tommy Smith, and Earl Eller.

Cheerleaders

KNEELING: Cathy Gray, Lynn Magann, Linda Alt. STANDING: Donna Long, Kitty Kendall, Brenda Pittman, Doris Hall.

Women's Recreation Association

KNEELING: Recording Secretary, Joy Hawkins; Secretary, Mavis Dowdle; President, Robin Gilman; Vice-President, Beverly Keller; Treasurer, Jean Dunn. STANDING: Miss Tyler, Linda Alt, Kitty Fisher, Lee Lowder, Jeannie Britt, Coleen Jamerson, Joanie Farrell, Britt Brittle, Diane Mason, Carol Bray, Maria Hunt, Morty Roe, Rose Parsekian.

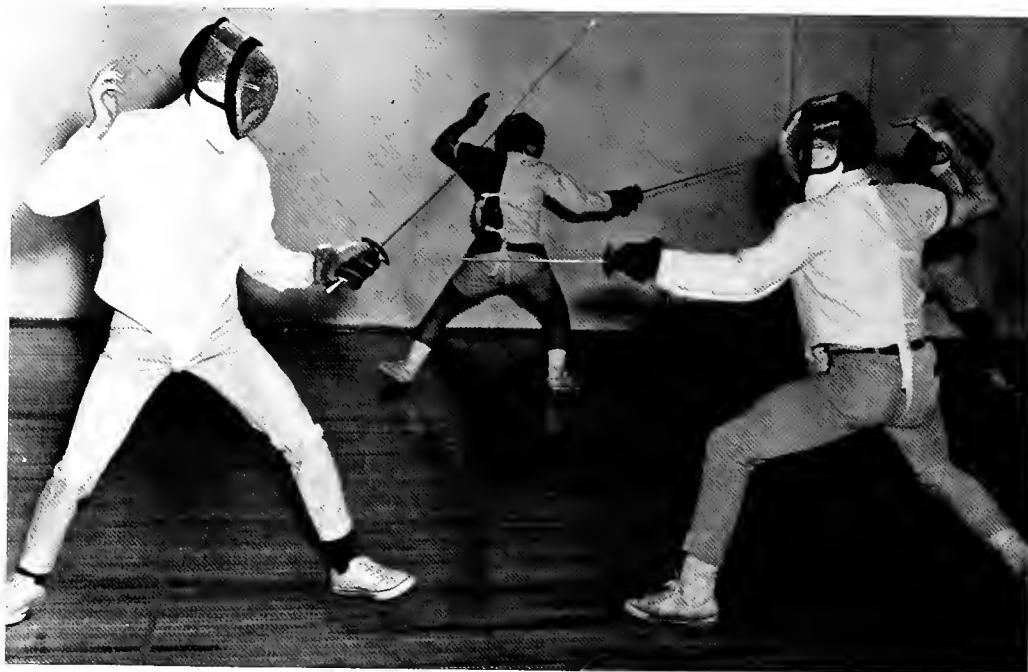

The Women's Recreation Association sponsors the women's intramural program. Every woman enrolled at Mars Hill is automatically a member of the Women's Recreation Association. By joining one of the clubs or participating on an intramural team, a student becomes an active member.

The activities are provided for the enjoyment and recreation, and it is hoped that each woman will participate in as many activities as possible. The non-skilled as well as the skilled are welcome to join in wholesome recreation with friends and take advantage of the chance to make new acquaintances, develop skills, enjoy relaxation through recreation, and develop the right attitude toward good sportsmanship and fair play.

Dorm intramural teams compete in volleyball, baseball, softball, badminton, tennis, table tennis, and swimming. The clubs participate in archery, crafts, gymnastics, slimnastics, fencing, and co-recreation.

The volleyball championship was won by Moore's Girls. They include Jeanie Britt, club chairman; Pat Merrill; Britt Brittle, team captain and dorm representative; Beverly Keller, Pat Horton, and Ingrid Young. Although not a WRA-sponsored activity, fencing was an addition to sports at MHC in 1967-68.

Mellaine Williams, Pat Letterman, Maria Hunt, Kay Caldwell, and Pat McCroskey.

Ann Peebles (left), Sally Spaulding, Mrs. Raymond Nelson, Dean of Women Mary Logan, Lynn Truell, and Sylvia Fulbright. Hidden behind Sylvia is Mrs. George Donnell.

Reflections

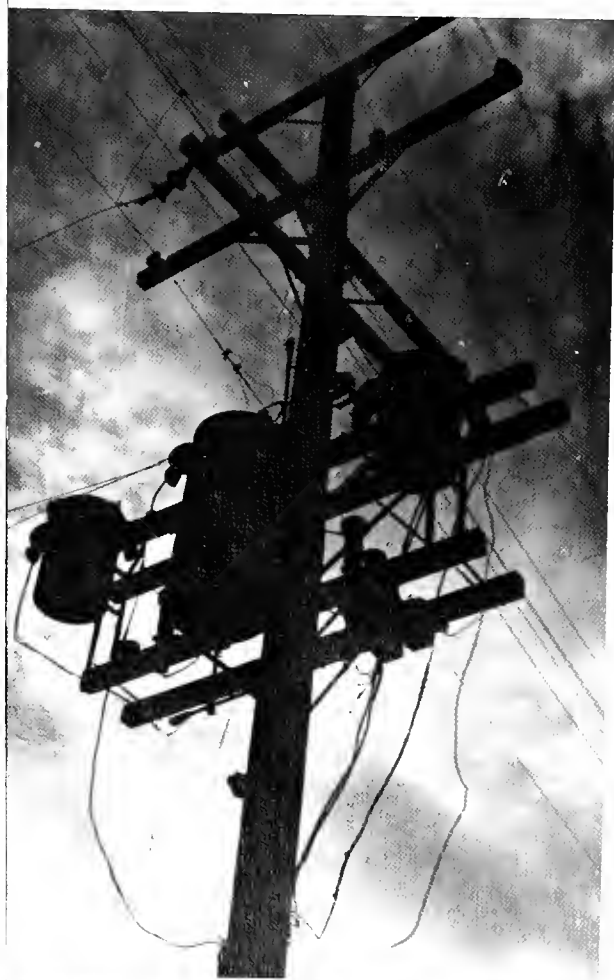

We come . . . alone
With a kaleidoscope of caverns to be filled.

Reasoning and choosing,
We join and participate,
Absorb and observe,
Converse and decide.

Conclusion

Like any other yearbook staff, we have striven to make this yearbook better than the ones before it. In our plans we wanted to make this book more personal and we designed it with one thought in mind, you, the students of Mars Hill College.

This year we wanted to let the student decide the main theme of the book and we meant to make this yearbook more meaningful to you by doing so. We hope that we have caught the true spirit of our campus in just these few pages.

I hope that in years to come, you will pick up your Laurel and remember some of the scenes that have been captured in it. To the Seniors, I wish you the best of luck, and to the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, "The end of the beginning is near."

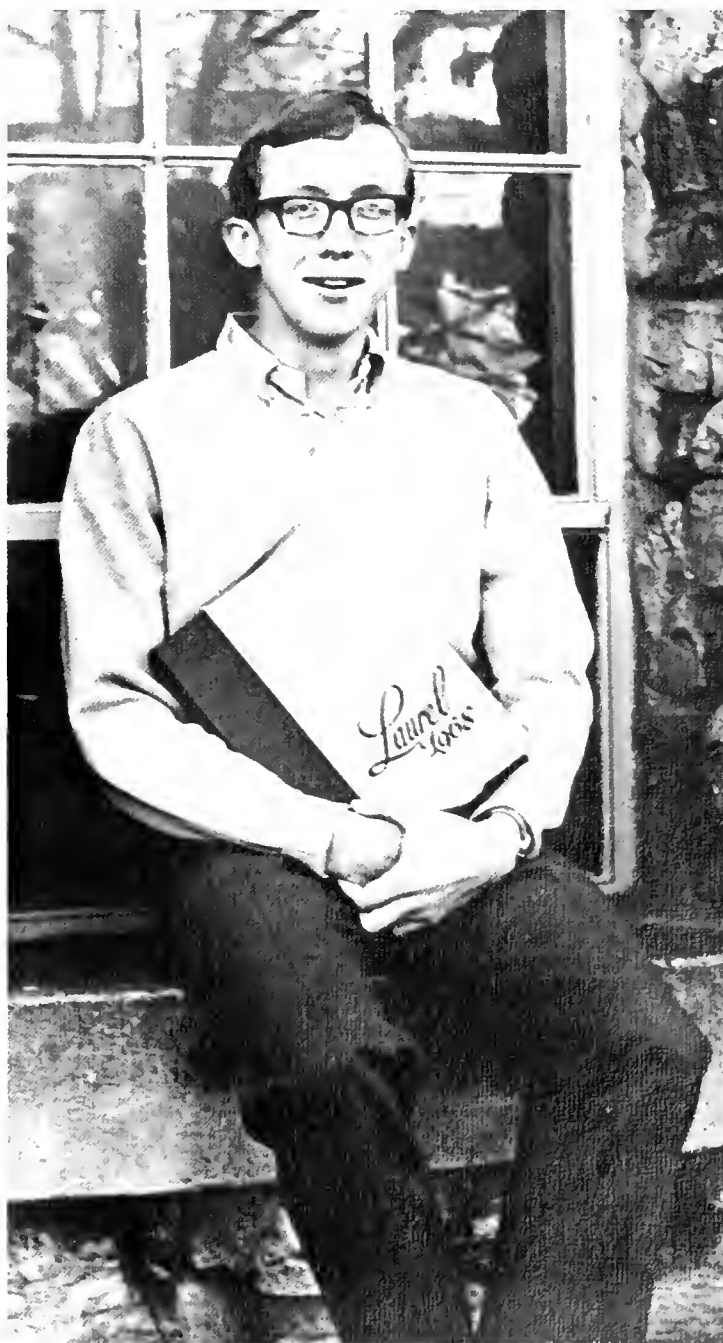

Mike Swaim
Editor, 1968 Laurel

We leave

With a fullness that reserves one hollow . . .
Room to grow.
